FREE-TONS OF SOBS-1968-THIRD 1970 UK PRESS-ISLAND - room ILPS-9089. Rare original British Blues-prog. Tons of Sobs is the debut Studio album by British rock band Free, released by Island Records on 14 March 1969. One of the first albums in the style of Blues-rock. The album hit the UK charts, but reached #197 in the Billboard Hot 200 in the United States. At the time of the recording of the album the band Free was very young: none of them are under the age of twenty, and bass player Andy Fraser was sixteen. They have had some success through constant touring, and their debut album was composed mostly of songs performed at concerts. The budget allocated for the recording of the album was only 800 pounds[2]. Much of the album was recorded over several days in October 1968. The original release of the album was scheduled for November 1968, but then postponed to early 1969 due to late add a cover version of Blues songs "The Hunter" by Albert King. BEE GEES-HIGH CIVILIZATION-1991-FIRST PRESS UK/EU GERMANY-WARNER-7599-26530-1. A rare original of the cult group. High Civilization is the nineteenth studio album by the British pop group the Bee Gees, released on March 25, 1991 in the United Kingdom, and on May 14, 1991 in the United States-their last album recorded for Warner Bros. Records, after a four-year contract (they will return to WB through a subsidiary company Reprise Records in 2006: having obtained the rights to their previously released material, they will reissue each album through Reprise). Perhaps in response to the firm resistance of American radio to the two previous albums-E. S. P. (1987) and One (1989), which proved well in other countries, the American Warner Bros. gave this advertisement one less share and did not release remixes. They recorded this album, and their next album size is not everything with engineer Femi Gia. In the US, the album was only available on CD and cassette, but the LP version was released in limited quantities in some countries. While it failed to chart in the US, it reached No. 6 in Switzerland, No. 2 in Germany (achieving platinum certification in both countries), No. 24 in the UK. GILLA-BEND ME SHAPE ME-1978-FIRST GERMANY PRESS-HANSA - 26166 OT. Very rare original one of the best albums in the disco style. In 1977, the album Help! Help!, which includes all her best songs, sung in German before, including Johnny. And although everything seems to be going well, the album "Help! Help!" was not too popular. To rectify the situation, Frank Farian re-released the album, adding there two new songs – dance Bend Me, Shape Me The River Sings a lyric. Accordingly, the album was given a new name Bend Me, Shape Me. The LP version sold better than the previous, although Farian and the leadership of the HANSA, apparently, hoped for more. After the release of the single jelly Rasputin, Frank Farian subcontract production Helmut Rulofs, and he focuses on his projects-favorites Boney M. and Eruption. And Gill in 1979 sent to the international Yamaha Music Festival in Tokyo and comes there to a semi-final with the song Take The Best Of Me. Vinyl in top condition - NMINT/ARCHIVE.
